

Georgia Author/Illustrator

Tracey M. Cox

Tracey M. Cox lives in South Georgia with her husband and three children.

She has been writing professionally since 2000. Tracey's writing credits include: newspapers, a writing blog, children's book reviews, magazines, and books. Her illustration credits include: South Georgia Writer's Guild logo, and her debut with a picture book.

Tracey is a member of the Society of Children's Book Writers & Illustrators. She is also the Web Master & Local Liaison for South Georgia in the Southern Breeze region of SCBWI. Tracey is also the founder and director of the Books Love & Taters Book Festival, which is held in Ocilla, Georgia every year. She is part of the KidLit TV team. Tracey is also a founding member of the South Georgia Writer's Guild and serves as the webmaster and is co-admin.

Tracey is available to visit schools with various presentations for SCHOOL VISITS and CAREER DAY, libraries for STORY HOUR and SUMMER EVENTS, businesses for BOOK SIGNINGS, organizational events as a GUEST SPEAKER. She also attends fairs and festivals.

You can find more information on Tracey M. Cox's web site:

www.traceymcox.com

